Medical Oncologist

Locum Full Time (8 months with the possibility of extension)
Start date: Immediately
BC Cancer – Kelowna Centre
Kelowna, BC

BC Cancer is one of the world's renowned cancer organizations. At the Sindi Ahluwalia Hawkins Centre, located in Kelowna, BC, offers a full range of services in Medical Oncology, Radiation Oncology, Palliative care and support services such as Nutrition, Clinical Trials and Patient and Family Counseling.

Working with a team of specialized medical oncologists at this centre, you will participate exclusively in the care of Oncology patients. The Okanagan is a region of spectacular beauty and agricultural abundance, with a variety of recreational options, offering the opportunity to ski, play a round of golf, ride horseback and visit a winery all in one day. Surrounded by majestic mountains, refreshing waters and lush orchards, every season holds promise, with activities such as hiking, biking and boating in summer, to skiing, boarding and snowmobiling in winter. Fortunate to be at the heart of BC's Okanagan wine region, the area boasts amazing festivals featuring internationally recognized wines. In addition to the museums, art galleries, unique shops and wonderful restaurants, the 2,000 hours of sunshine each year will help you enjoy making the Southern Interior your home.

As a Medical Oncologist you will use your extensive experience and qualifications to provide oncology consultation, patient care, teaching, and research. You have obtained or are working towards Fellowship standing in the Royal College of Physicians & Surgeons of Canada in Internal Medicine, along with a certificate of Special Competence in Medical Oncology. You must also be eligible for licensing with the College of Physicians & Surgeons of British Columbia and meet the requirements of credentialing by the Professional Advisory Committee of BC Cancer. You must be eligible for a valid license to practice medicine in Canada to apply.
