

Medical Oncologist

Department of Medicine

Across our three hospitals and eight satellite sites, Scarborough Health Network (SHN) is shaping the future of care. Our many programs and services are designed around the needs of one of Canada's most vibrant and diverse communities. We are home to North America's largest nephrology program, as well as the designated cardiac care and spine centre for Scarborough and surrounding communities to the east. We are proud to be a community-affiliated teaching site for the University of Toronto and partner with a number of other universities and colleges, helping to train the next generation of health care professionals.

The Department of Medicine at Scarborough Health Network is seeking a full-time staff Medical Oncologist to join our current team. As a staff medical oncologist, you will assess and treat oncology patients with solid tumor malignancies in an ambulatory clinic setting. You will also consult on admitted in-patients, join regular department meetings, and actively participate in Multidisciplinary Cancer Conferences. Participation in call schedule is also expected.

This position is funded through an Alternate Funding Plan (AFP) with the Ontario Medical Oncologist Association (ONTMOA).

The candidate must be eligible for independent practice licensure with the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario, and hold certification by the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada in Internal Medicine and Medical Oncology. Emphasis will be placed on candidates with experience working in a community hospital setting as well as candidates with strong communication skills.
